The Monster Who Did My Math by Danny Schnitzlein

ISBN: 1-56145-420-6; copyrighted 2007

Educators Outlet #114929 $16.95 (MSRP $16.95)

What's the best solution to this numerical dilemma? One boy adds a monster to the equation – a monster who does his math homework for him. After a quick signature on a contract, the boy's problems are solved, and his homework is ready to turn in the next day. At first, everything adds up perfectly. But when the boy's math knowledge is tested at school, his troubles begin to multiply.

How Many Seeds in a Pumpkin? by Margaret McNamara

Can make it more complex by asking about how many pieces of bread, tomatoes, fries

* One Odd Day by Doris Fisher
ISBN: 1-934-35933-5; copyrighted 2007
Educators Outlet #115874 $8.49 (MSRP $8.95)
Tells the humorous story of a young child who awakens to find everything around him is "odd." He has three sleeves on his shirt, and his dog has five legs. Things are no better at school either when he stares at a calendar with only odd days. Will his odd day end when he goes to bed that night?
Searching for odd numbers

* My Even Day by Doris Fisher
ISBN: 1-934-35922-X; copyrighted 2007
Educators Outlet #115871 $8.49 (MSRP $8.95)
In this delightful, rhythmic sequel to "One Odd Day," the young boy awakens to find that it is another strange day – now everything is even, and his mother has two heads! This time, a school field trip to the zoo is dealt with in an odd, but even-handed manner. And, like its predecessor, children will spend hours looking for all the hidden objects in the incredible art.

* My Half Day by Doris Fisher
ISBN: 1-934-35929-7; copyrighted 2008
Educators Outlet #114935 $8.49 (MSRP $8.95)
The wacky fun continues in this sequel to "My Even Day" as a young boy awakens to find a half-head of hair. After chugging down his glass of milk that is two-thirds goeey paste, he and his friend are off to camp for a day of fraction fun and out-of-this world soccer game.
